For the books that stay with you.

Just your books, your words,
and the moments worth keeping.

An open invitation

A reading life has room for more than a number.

Use these pages in your own order.

01 MAKE A LITTLE ROOM

Start with an intention, a book you are curious about,
or a list that you are free to change.

02 NOTICE WHAT HAPPENS

For each month, make note of what you read.
You do not have to finish everything you start.

03 KEEP WHAT MATTERS

A quote, a thought, or a feeling is enough.
Let the notes grow at the pace of your reading.

HOW TO REUSE THESE PAGES

Write the month yourself. Copy a notes page when you need another.
In the digital PDF, use Contents, section indexes, and page links.
On paper, print only the pages you want to use.
